Andrea Cukier
Inwood Skies: Imaginary Landscapes

September 14 – October 28, 2010

Opening Reception: Thursday, September 30, 5:30-7:00pm
Russ Berrie Medical Science Pavilion, Columbia University

Sueño Fangoso, Oil on Canvas, 9 inches by 9 inches

Columbia University in the City of New York

Russ Berrie Medical Science Pavilion
1150 St. Nicholas Avenue (at 168th Street)
open Monday-Friday during regular business hours

Lasker Biomedical Research Building
3960 Broadway (entrance on 166th Street)
open 24 hrs, 7 days/week

The Office of Government and Community Affairs at Columbia University is pleased to present the works of the award-winning, Inwood-based Argentine artist, Andrea Cukier. The paintings in this exhibition belong to a series called Inwood Skies. These are imaginary landscapes inspired by the changing atmosphere in the narrow gaps of sky that the artist sees from her window.

“I want my work to evoke a quietude that inspires contemplation, while remaining true to the visceral nature of my approach to painting. And here, in this series, I would like to convey something of what it feels like to look out across the Inwood rooftops at an ever-changing atmosphere, while also dreaming distant skies of memory.” — Andrea Cukier

Presented by the Office of Government and Community Affairs, Columbia University in the City of New York

www.neighbors.columbia.edu