COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK

Columbia University Manhattanville Scholarships for Lifelong Learners

Columbia University is proud to announce its Manhattanville Scholarship Program for Lifelong Learners. The Lifelong Learners Program is designed for individuals over 65 years of age committed to the principles of lifelong education. The Lifelong Learners Scholarships allow seniors not currently enrolled in college the opportunity to attend select lectures and courses drawn from the University's offerings in the Arts and Sciences during the academic year at no charge.

First launched in 1986 in partnership with the Brookdale Institute on Aging and Human Development, the Lifelong Learner's Program is run by Columbia's School for Continuing Education and has grown to 200 participants.

Manhattanville Scholarships for Lifelong Learners are available to residents of the Manhattanville and Grant Houses and the local Manhattanville community who are 65 and older.

Beginning in September 2013, scholarship recipients may attend Columbia Arts and Sciences courses free of charge. Scholarship recipients are encouraged to attend class and to keep up with the reading. No examinations or papers are required and no grade is assigned. Scholarship recipients will also have access to Columbia libraries, services at campus cafes and the University bookstore, and can take advantage of cultural discount programs in New York City offered to other Columbia students.

For an application and additional information, please contact the School of Continuing Education at:

Email: ce-info@columbia.edu

Phone: 212-854-9666

The Manhattanville Lifelong Learner Scholarship Program is supported by the School of Continuing Education's Office of Student Life, a team of student services professionals committed to providing information about Columbia's academic resources. Members of this office will be available to assist scholarship recipients in making informed decisions about course options so that they get the most out of their Columbia experience.

Subject: An Update on Community Services, Amenities, and Benefits of Columbia University's Manhattanville Campus in West Harlem
Date: Wednesday, September 25, 2013 1:20:33 PM

Dear Neighbor,

In addition to its many established community programs and partnerships, Columbia University provides numerous amenities and benefits to the local community in conjunction with the development of a new Manhattanville campus in West Harlem. These commitments reflect the many ways in which the University and the local community have joined together to improve the quality of health, education, culture, and civic life in Upper Manhattan.

I am writing today to share with you a publication entitled Growing Together: An Update on Community Services, Amenities, and Benefits of Columbia University's Manhattanville Campus in West Harlem. This booklet provides an update on construction progress as well as information about many of the programs and services under the Declaration of Covenants & Restrictions (as agreed to with Empire State Development) and the West Harlem Community Benefits Agreement (as agreed to with the West Harlem Development Corporation) currently available relating to:

- CHILDREN AND YOUTH
- ELDERLY AND DISABLED
- ADULTS
- EDUCATION, EMPLOYMENT AND JOB TRAINING
- ACCESS TO FACILITIES AND SERVICES
- HOUSING
- MONETARY CONTRIBUTIONS TO
 - A Community Benefits Fund via The West Harlem Development Corporation
 - Harlem Community Development Corporation

We hope you find this information helpful. If you would like more information on any of these programs or services, including information on eligibility and access, please visit our Community Services Website or contact the Office of Government and Community Affairs at 212-854-2871 or communityaffairs@columbia.edu. You can also request a hard copy of the "Growing Together: An Update on Community Services, Amenities, and Benefits of Columbia University's Manhattanville Campus in West Harlem" booklet at the contact information above. If you would prefer not to receive these periodic updates, please reply to this e-mail with the word "REMOVE" in the subject line.

Sincerely,

Maxine Griffith, AICP
Executive Vice President
Office of Government and Community Affairs and Special Advisor, Campus Planning

Note: For the purpose of determining program eligibility, "local community" means the neighborhoods in the following zip codes: 10025, 10026, 10027, 10029, 10030, 10031, 10032, 10033, 10034, 10035, 10037, 10039, 10040, 10451, 10454, 10455, 10474 unless otherwise defined.

ADULTS AND SENIORS

TRANSPORTATION

In 2009, Columbia University began providing free shuttle service to seniors, those with disabilities, and their attendants. Since then, Columbia has provided the free shuttle service for travel to and from subway stations at 96th Street and Broadway, 116th and Broadway, 125th Street and Broadway, Columbia University Medical Center at 168th Street, and Harlem Hospital Center. Flyers with information about the shuttle have been distributed to Community Board 9, Manhattanville and Grant Houses, and the offices of local elected officials. The shuttle bus service runs on a regular schedule throughout the day every weekday, except on state and federal holidays, and is meant to complement, not replace, existing MTA service. The shuttle bus schedule can be found at <http://transportation.columbia.edu>.

ELDERSMILE

For more than four years, ElderSmile at Columbia's College of Dental Medicine has been providing much-needed dental screening to older persons living in Upper Manhattan communities. Experienced dental school faculty, assisted by students, staff the ElderSmile program. Those who need more in-depth dental care are referred to ElderSmile treatment centers. Dental care professionals visit senior centers to provide patient education and screening. ElderSmile provides important care to those more vulnerable to serious dental conditions and related diseases such as diabetes, heart and lung diseases, and stroke.

For more information on the ElderSmile program, please contact the School of Dental Medicine at 212-305-1045.

COMMUNITY SCHOLARS

As part of its commitment to the community in connection with the Manhattanville campus expansion, Columbia established a Community Scholars Program to offer adults from northern Manhattan access to Columbia University services and resources. The Community Scholars Program supports and facilitates the work of individuals toward the completion of a particular project or toward attaining skills in a specific area of interest. In 2013, the inaugural cohort of scholars will be made up of five local residents—each with a three-year appointment—enabling them to pursue their lifelong learning aspirations. For more information, e-mail communityaffairs@columbia.edu.

MANHATTANVILLE CONTINUING EDUCATION AUDITING PROGRAM

Beginning in September 2013, 50 members of the local community became eligible for free auditing of courses, with 25 of those members coming from Manhattanville and/or Grant Houses. The Auditing Program provides adults not currently enrolled in college with the opportunity, free of charge, to audit selected classes and lectures drawn from the University's offerings in the Arts and Sciences during the academic year. Auditors are encouraged to attend classes and to keep up with the reading. No examinations or papers are required, and no grade is assigned. Auditors will also have access to Columbia Libraries and services at campus cafés and the University Bookstore, and they may take advantage of cultural discount programs in New York City offered to other Columbia students.

MANHATTANVILLE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM FOR LIFELONG LEARNERS

Also in September 2013, Columbia University expanded its Lifelong Learners Program to include up to 50 members of the local community, with 25 of those members coming from Manhattanville and/or Grant Houses. The Lifelong Learners Program provides an opportunity for individuals over 65 and not currently enrolled in college to audit select lectures and courses drawn from the University's offerings in the Arts and Sciences during the academic year, at no charge. First launched in 1986 in partnership with the Brookdale Institute on Aging and Human Development, Columbia's School for Continuing Education runs the Lifelong Learners Program.

Columbia University provides free shuttle service on most weekdays.
