Obligation Section Number: 5.07(c)(vi)

Obligation Page Number: 53

Obligation Trigger: PACB Approval

Obligation Start Date: May 20, 2009 (PACB Approval date)

Obligation End Date: May 20, 2035* (25 Years from Commencement)

Obligation Status: In Compliance

Obligation

Undergraduate Scholarships for Aid-Eligible Students from the Local Community. In an effort to encourage students to attend Columbia College and the Fu School of Engineering and Applied Science, CU shall undertake a targeted recruitment effort for qualified students from the local community. Commencing on May 20, 2009, CU shall establish a scholarship fund to serve up to 40 aid-eligible undergraduate students per year who are admitted to Columbia College and the Fu School of Engineering and Applied Science from Harlem, with funding made available to meet their fully demonstrated financial need until 2033 or for a period of 25 years from commencement, whichever is longer.

* Planning activities were still ongoing upon the obligation trigger date. Undergraduate scholarships were made available with the start of the 2010-2011 academic year, one year after the trigger date. Therefore, this obligation will be in effect until the 2034-2035 academic year, 25 years from the commencement of the obligation implementation.

Outreach Plan Summary

Columbia Summer Programs College Fair - Every summer Columbia University hosts one of the largest summer college fairs in the country attracting over 100 colleges from across the country. The breadth and depth of our college preparatory efforts for local students increases the popularity of our summer college fair. The college fair consists of workshops for local parents and students, including tips for performing your college search and navigating the college fair, a workshop on financial aid, and a workshop on the college application process. The fair is typically attended by more than 2,000 community members throughout the day's events.

cordially invites you to attend our fourth annual

Arts Invitational

Friday, November 1, 2013
3:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

This program will show you some of the exciting opportunities in the arts at Columbia and in New York City, the arts capital of the world. The event is designed for prospective students with interest in pursuing the arts at Columbia College in one of our conservatory-caliber majors and programs:

Architecture
Art History and Visual Arts
Creative Writing
Dance
Drama and Theatre Arts
Film Studies
Jazz Studies
Music
Visual Arts

The afternoon includes:

- an overview of studying the arts at Columbia, including specific programs and opportunities in all the arts, admissions requirements and our generous need-based financial aid program.
- a panel of current students highlighting the undergraduate experience at Columbia and our thriving arts community.
- a reception with current students giving you the opportunity to speak with undergraduate artists.
- an optional campus tour emphasizing the arts.

Kindly register online by Wednesday, October 30, 2013.

More information about the event can be found on our website.

We look forward to seeing you on campus this November!

Dear {{First}},

On behalf of Columbia University, the Multicultural Recruitment Committee, The Fu Foundation School of Engineering and Applied Science and the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, we would like to invite you to apply to the Columbia Engineering Experience (CE²) program taking place October 13-15, 2013.

CE² is Columbia's only selective three-day overnight program designed for current high school seniors who are interested in the unique Columbia Engineering education. The event will include:

- 100% funding: For students admitted to CE², all meals, snacks and housing, as well as air, rail and ground transportation will be funded by Columbia.
- World-class faculty and research: Meet members of Columbia's renowned faculty and visit our world-class research centers.
- Inside look at life as a Columbian: Stay with an undergraduate host, experience campus life, and meet current students, including members of Engineers Without Borders, the National Society of Black Engineers, the Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers, the Native American Council, the Society of Women Engineers and many others.
- Exclusive career and entrepreneurship opportunities: Take a behind-the-scenes tour of a leading engineering firm or organization in New York City. Past attendees have visited Google, Goldman Sachs, Port Authority and Parsons Brinckerhoff, to cite just a few examples.
- The NYC advantage: Learn about the cultural, professional, research and intellectual opportunities at our doorstep and take a tour of New York City.
- Admissions 101: Meet [REDACTED], Dean of Undergraduate Admissions and Financial Aid, and participate in comprehensive college admissions and financial aid workshops conducted by members of the Columbia Admissions Committee.

Due to the selectivity and limited size of the program, an application with a school report is required. CE² is designed for high-achieving seniors who have:

- Exemplary academic records, particularly in math and science.
- Sincere interest in pursuing an engineering education.
- Genuine appreciation for the educational value of diversity in all its forms.

Please click here for the on-line application and instructions. Applications are accepted only online and must be received by the following deadline: Monday, September 9, 2013

Students selected for the program will be notified on September 20, 2013.

We hope you consider this unique opportunity to learn more about Columbia Engineering!

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Columbia Engineering Women's Forum
Monday, September 30, 2013

Columbia students come from all over the world and represent a variety of academic interests, life experiences and perspectives. With 43% of this year's first-year engineering class comprised of women and with approximately half of our incoming class self-identifying as students of color, we are one of the most diverse schools of engineering in the country.

At the Women's Forum students and parents will meet renowned Columbia Engineering faculty, be introduced to Columbia's unique approach to engineering and learn about the exciting opportunities available to female engineers at Columbia.

The program includes:

- A welcome from Columbia Engineering's new dean, [REDACTED].
- A roundtable discussion with female engineering faculty.
- A departmental session to learn about an area of study within engineering (for students).
- An overview of academic resources for engineers (for parents and families).
- Opportunities to hear from current students about campus life and engineering co-curricular organizations including Engineers Without Borders and the Society of Women Engineers.
- Optional presentations on admissions and financial aid and campus tours at the conclusion of the program.

We ask that {{First}} kindly RSVP online no later than Friday, September 27.

Check-in will begin at 10:45 a.m.; the program starts promptly at 11:15 a.m.

Dear First,

Greetings from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at Columbia University!

Visiting Columbia's campus can be an invaluable experience in your college search process to determine if the school is the right fit for you. If you are interested in learning more about the University's diverse and vibrant community, accomplished faculty and academic offerings, you will find information below on several upcoming campus visit programs that might appeal to you.

Lunch Visits for Prospective Students

The Office of Undergraduate Admissions invites high school seniors to eat lunch with current first-year students in one of our on-campus dining halls. Take advantage of the opportunity to learn more about the intellectual community and student experience at Columbia by asking candid questions of your lunch hosts. Lunch visits are available Thursday afternoons during the fall semester. Registration is required.

For more information and to register for an on-campus lunch visit, please visit our website.

Overnight Visits for Prospective Students

Overnight visits are an excellent way for prospective students to experience the academic and social life at Columbia first-hand. Visiting students will stay in an on-campus residence hall with a first-year student host and shadow an evening in the life of a current Columbian. Overnight visits are available Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings during the fall semester, with the option to visit a class on your own during your stay. Registration is required.

For more information and to register for an overnight visit, please visit our website.

We encourage all prospective students visiting campus also to attend an Information Session and Campus Tour or a Class Visit. You must register separately for each component of your visit.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions at ugrad-ask@columbia.edu or 212-854-2522. We wish you the very best this academic year and look forward to seeing you on campus soon!

Best,
