

COLUMBIA NEIGHBORS

B U L L E T I N

Photo credit: Cole Giordano

COMMUNITY UPDATES

Uptown Events Heating Up the Summer

Summer is kicking into full gear Uptown, especially in Harlem. The iconic Uptown Night Market, which happens every second Thursday of the month through October, is back and features over 50 incredible food vendors serving up bites from worldwide cuisines.

The Harlem Meer Performance Festival takes place on Sundays during July and August and features family-friendly performers who dance, sing, and provide entertainment for all ages. Harlem Week, the neighborhood's legendary annual festival, is celebrating its 50th anniversary with a mega celebration, complete with music festivals, concerts, spelling bees, and so much more.

Further Uptown, the Morris-Jumel Mansion is hosting free, fun events all summer long, including an outside screening of Stand and Deliver, in partnership with Inwood Art Works. The Inwood Jazz Festival is also making its way back to the neighborhood in August with a day full of free live performances, workshops, and jam sessions.

Curious about the full list of events? Check it out at neighbors.columbia.edu/summer-24.

Get to Know DJ Stormin' Norman

East London-born, Harlem-based Norman McHugh, better known as DJ Stormin' Norman, has been bringing joy to scores of music-lovers for years.

Known for his legendary Sundae Sermon sets in Harlem, Norman spoke with Neighbors about his inspirations, musical influences, and love for cultivating community during his dance parties.

"I've always come from a place of meeting people where they are, and they come because my essence ultimately is about bringing people together," said Norman.

Photo credit: Susan Farley

"If you create something from an organic place, it's going to give you back exactly that."

Read the full story with DJ Stormin' Norman at neighbors.columbia.edu/norman.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

ColumbiaDoctors Outreach at Haven Plaza Farmers' Market
July 9, 10:00 am - 2:00 pm

During the Haven Plaza Farmers' Market, Columbia Doctors Outreach will be presenting a children's health awareness day with giveaways.

neighbors.columbia.edu/dr-24

Uptown Bounce! Parties
July 18 and 25, August 1

Uptown Bounce is an electric series of free summer block parties co-presented by El Museo Del Barrio and Museum of the City of New York.

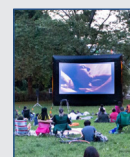

neighbors.columbia.edu/bounce-24

Go Africa Carnival 2024
July 20,
10:00 am - 6:30 pm

Go Africa Carnival is an annual event that celebrates African, African American, and Caribbean cultures from all parts of the world.

neighbors.columbia.edu/go-24

Movie in the Park: "Stand and Deliver"
July 25,
7:00 pm - 10:00 pm

The Morris-Jumel Mansion is hosting a free movie night in the park, in partnership with Inwood Art Works.

neighbors.columbia.edu/morris-24